We, the annual staff, picked The Journey as the theme because we thought it fit the students. The title of this page is very appropriate because of the three classes in this high school. The Sophomore's Journey, their first, started on August 20, 1979, and they helped a lot over the school year. That journey will not be their last in high school. The middle journey is for the Juniors and it has been a very good one for all the Juniors. Then comes the last journey for the Seniors. They have come a long way from Sophomores to Juniors to Seniors, their last year. They have come through education, fun and frustration. Then they will graduate and go their separate ways. So you have it; the first, middle, and last journey in high school.

The First, Middle, And Last, Journey

The First, Middle And Last Journey

This is Mrs. Bobby Hansen's last year at Belen High School. She is one of the most respected teachers at the high school. We are dedicating this 1980 yearbook to her because her journey has been a long one. She has been teaching here for ten years, and has seen many students come and go. There are many things she and her husband are going to do when she retires. They are going to visit their four grandchildren and are going to learn to speak Spanish. She and her husband plan to live in Mexico a couple of months a year. The administration and the student body will miss one of the best. Good by, Mrs. Hansen.

Cross country is the black sheep of high school sports because it does not receive all the hurrahs and fanfare that more widely publicized sports do. Each individual sets out on the road with the heart of a lion and the inner strength of a true competitor. The runner's only consolation is that he had the stamina to stick out a grueling 3 mile journey to the very end. This year's cross country journey took Joseph Garcia to the nationals where he placed third and the team took first. Team members (l to r): Amanda Silva, Lucretia Knopf, Julia Baca, Sandra Baca, Joanna Silva, Coach Edwina Chavez, Karen Griego, Janet Johnson, Mary Castillo, Bernice Chacon, Marcy Martinez, Regina Segura. Boys: Kyle Bond, Philip Gomez, Leonard Torres, Matthew Romero, Ted Castillo, Dean Bernadone, Tommy Garcia, Martin Chavez, Louis Aragon, Jimmy Esquibel, Michael Benavidez, Frank Garcia, Randy Garcia, Kyle Murr, Tommy Tharnish, Coach Gardner, Joseph Garcia, Robert Sanchez, Richard Castillo, Michael Sanchez, Joseph Castillo, Joseph Chacon, Harold Jaramillo, Chris Rodriguez.

The beginning of the 79-80 basketball journey was filled with high hopes, but as the season progressed the light of hope quickly dimmed for any place at state. Coach Griego's team never gave up and the crowd never stopped cheering them on. The talent that coach Griego brought out of these boys has been tremendous, and we all expect the coming year to be a winning season.

On a mild but windy May 23, the class of 1980 assembled for the recognition of their educational achievements. Ceremonies began at 8 p.m. with the special education graduation. Senior class president, Steve Gallegos, introduced the pledge of allegiance by likening the graduates to the stars-signs of hope for the future and the relatives, friends and teachers to the stripes-firm complement and support. In an especially moving moment, the class paused to remember their classmate, Frank Apodaca, and the other students who had recently been killed. After speeches, scholarship awards and diploma presentations, the barriers came down and the crowd rushed to congratulate the graduates and whisk them off to the evening's celebrations.

is said that God works in mysterious ways and s year we all at the high school found that that s true. This year two of our most loved friends re called to by God, and we the students find it rd to see why this happened.

ese two students were Pat Wood and Kevin
bet. Both of them were one-of-a-kind people.
ey had and knew what they wanted out of life.
ey had their dreams and goals and to some ople they were goals that were not important.
t to them their dreams and goals were the one ng they strived for. So we say goodbye my ends and we think and know in our hearts that ur goals and dreams will live on.

TO KEVIN
Kevin is gone now

Our memories of Kevin

We will always remember

He is in heaven now

Because he was chosen

to appreciate life and
he way things have to be.

We all loved Kevin and
will miss him so.
But some day all of us,
we all have to go.

We will remember him
so crazy and free,
his laughter, his smile
in our minds we still see.

We must let go now,
to spite all the pain.
He is now in God's hands
and has all to gain.

"I'll loan you for a little time
 a child of Mine," He said,
 "For you to love the while she lives
 and grieve for when she's dead.
 It may be six or seven years
 or twenty-two or three,
 But will you till I call her back,
 take care of her for Me?
 She'll bring her charm to gladden you
 and should her stay be brief
 You'll have her lovely memories
 to save for years of grief.
 I cannot promise she will stay,
 since all from earth return.
 But there are lessons taught down here
 I want this child to learn.
 I've looked the wide world over in
 My search for teachers true,
 And from the throngs that crowd life's scene
 I have selected you.
 Will you give her all your love,
 nor think the labor vain?
 Nor hate Me when I come to call
 to take her back again?
 I fancied that I heard them say,"
 "Dear Lord, Thy will be done!
For all the joy Thy child shall bring,
the risk of grief we'll run.
 And for the happiness we've known,
 forever grateful stay.
 But shall the angels call for her
 much sooner than we planned, We'll take the bitter grief that comes
 and try to understand.

Every day is but a step
On a journey we must all make.
Where we go or how we get there
Depends upon the path we choose.

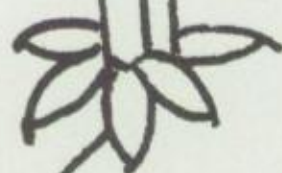

As you travel in your world
from day to day Pay strict attention to what you hear And give thought to what you say.

Life is limitless
when you learn how to use that which is given you. Shy away from abuse. Test your boundaries
but never needlessly knock them down. The only fool that smiles in reality conceals a frown.

Alan Peters. Senior of 1979.

I left him there for you to love,
 Now he's with me up above.
 He had his fun for a while,
 But now he's happy, so you
 can smile.
 You can love him, though he's
 gone,
 Because the love you have
 will carry on.
 You may be mad, because you
 had to depart,
 But if you really love him,
 he'll be in your heart.
 What has happened, will always be,
 But someday you too shall
 be with me.

There are many people involved in putting an annual together, and many people deserve our thanks. Among them are:

Mary Ann Luna for typing special copy.

Vangie and Barbara for kind, generous and rapid help.

Mr. Garcia for all his cooperation.

Mr. Hodges for all his backing.

Mela for keeping track of all the money.

Mr. Griego for speaking at our one day sale.

Mr. Tabet for speaking at our one day sale.

Mr. Gregory for speaking at our one day sale.

Mrs. Brody for speaking at our one day sale.

Mrs. Andrews for all of her faith in the staff.

Charles Rushton for his help with the one day sale slide show.

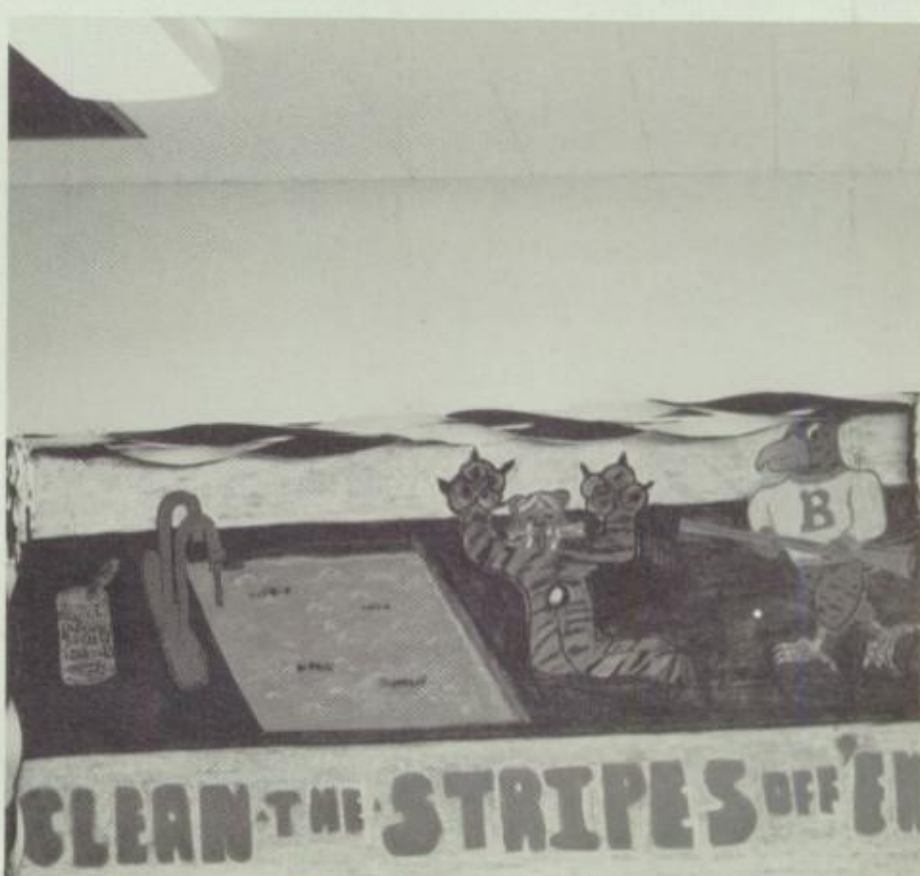

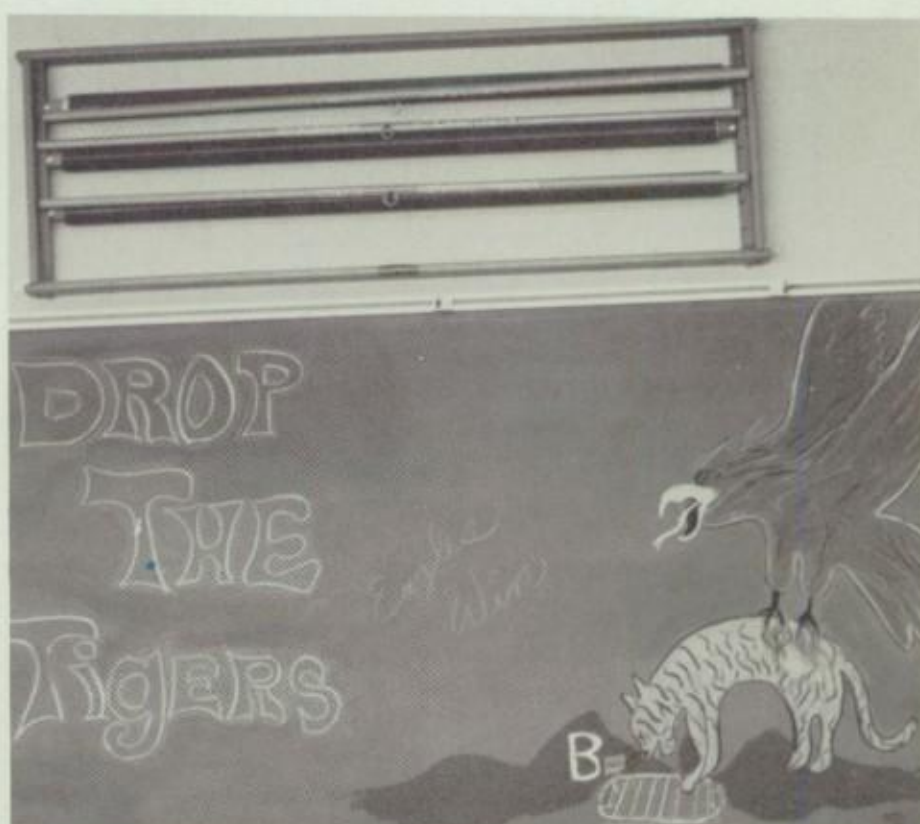

Thanks to the faculty for patience and cooperation.

Special thanks to the staff members for a great job!

Faces Along The Journey

The Writings On The Wall.

To the 1979-1980 El Aguila staff:

As editor in chief of this year's annual staff and, I hope, a friend to each staff member, I have a few things to say.

Well for one, thank you for everything you guys and gals did. Without you there would be no yearbook. I also want to tell you that I have noticed from the start of this year to the end we have had some differences of opinion, but we all worked together to come to a solution.

So, I hope that all you staff members liked working with me as well as I did with you. Well, in closing, I just want to say, "Thank you, and good luck next year." I hope next year's staff is as well together and can put out a yearbook as good as this one.

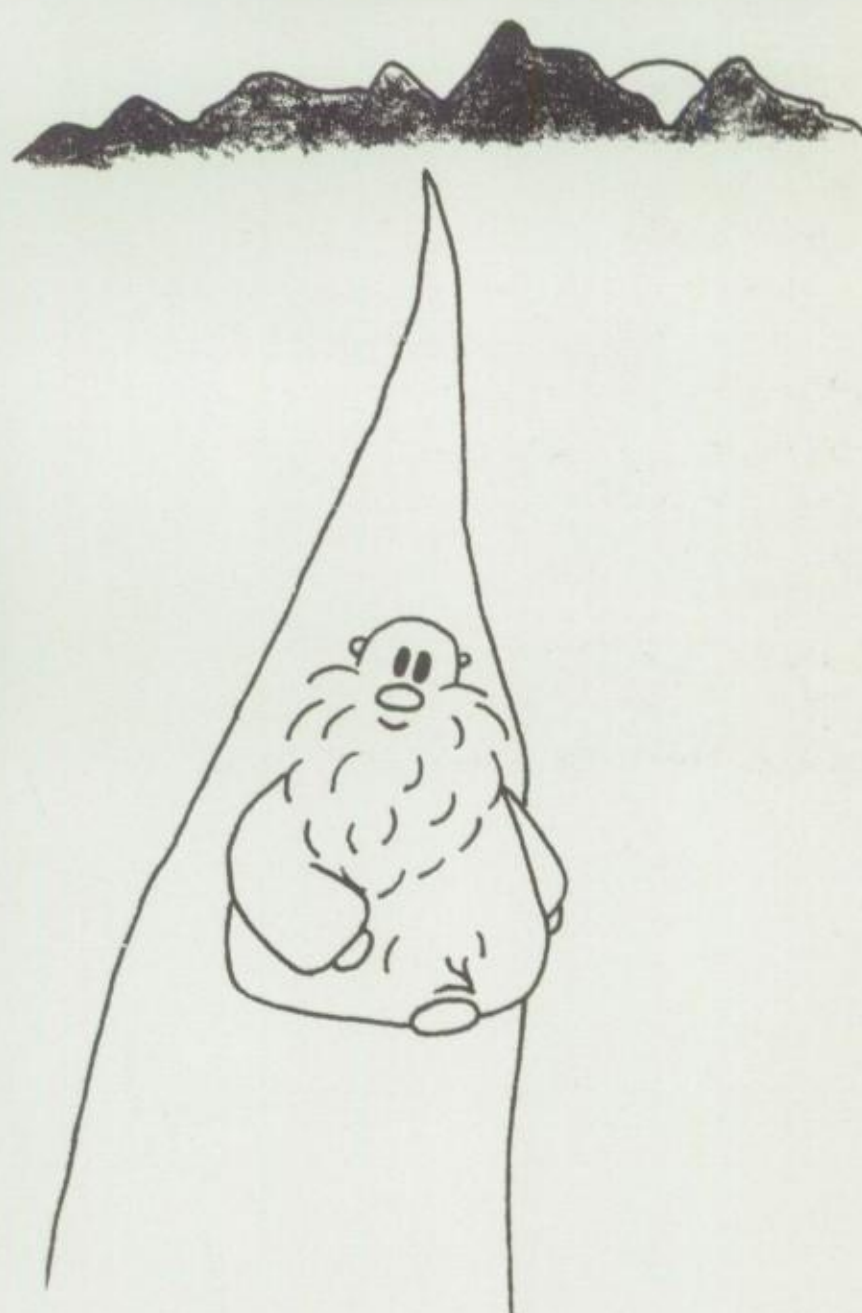

Good-bye.
